FACTS about Father Nicola Yanney

Fr. Nicola Yanney was born in 1873 in Lebanon. At the age of nineteen, he married a Lebanese girl Martha.

Soon they immigrated to Nebraska, had four children, and lived on a farm in Gibbon.

In 1904 Saint Raphael of Brooklyn ordained him a priest. This was Saint Raphael's first priestly ordination.

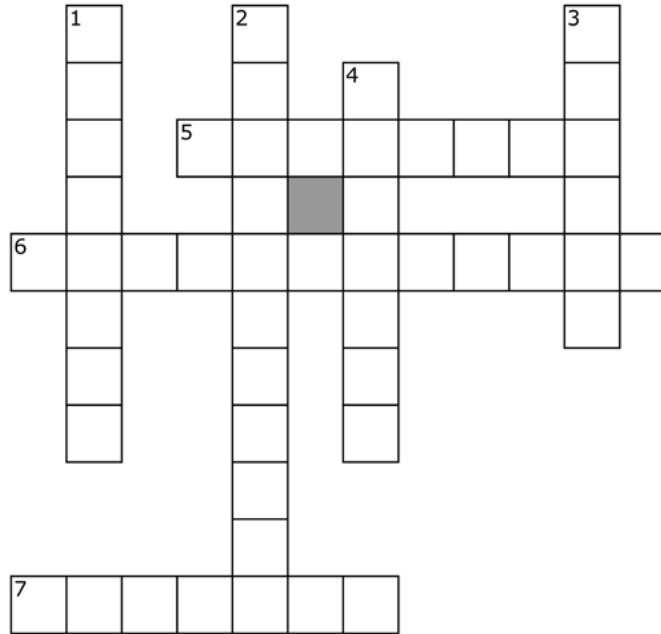

At the age of 29 Father Nicola became a widower and had to raise his four children all by himself.

In 1904 they moved from Gibbon to Kearney to serve at the church of Saint George. He continued the missionary work of Saint Raphael in the Midwest.

His parishioners were spread in almost all of the midwestern states, in Nebraska, Kansas, Texas, Missouri, Oklahoma, and the Dakotas.

Fr. Nicola Yanney died in 1918 during the outbreak of the Spanish Flue while selflessly caring for his sick parishioners and bringing the Holy Communion to their homes.
