

Greek Seamen Nabbed For Jumping Ship

JEFFERSON — Four Greek seamen were arrested Thursday on their way to Sparta. Unfortunately it was Sparta, N. J., and they had no passports.

The four, who police believed jumped ship in New York Harbor, were arrested as they walked along Route 15 just short of the Sparta Township line.

They were turned over to immigration authorities and the FBI on charge of illegal entry.

Police identified them as Michael Sonmbassis, 22; Thomas Metron, 19; Metlidis Katsafaros, 18, and Coast Aratias, 19.
