

U. S. Officers Seek Three Greek Seamen

Fugitives From Freighter Disappear Here—Ship Agents Liable To $3,000 Fine

Immigration authorities yesterday were searching for three Greek seamen of the freighter Maria L, who escaped from the vessel last Sunday.

The men were among seventeen members of the Greek crew who had been ordered held aboard ship because they were not bona fide seamen. The freighter docked here May 27 from Poti, Russia.

Local agents for the ship were ordered to post $3,000 because of the men's disappearance. They will be given sixty days to show cause why they should not be fined. The Greek vessel, carrying a cargo of coal, sailed yesterday for Buenos Aires.
