

FIENDISH TORTURES FOR GREEK PRELATE

Turkish Mob, at General's Order,
Hacked Smyrna Metropolitan's
Body to Pieces.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Writing of the martyrdom of Mgr. Chrysostom, the Greek Metropolitan of Smyrna, the Smyrna correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says:

"The murdered Prelate, according to an account given me from a Greek source, was arrested and brought before the Kemalist General, Nureddin Pasha, who ordered him to be handed over, together with his dragoman, to a fanatical mob.

The mob tore off the Archbishop's beard and did him to death in one of the main public squares, after inflicting upon him and his dragoman the most fiendish tortures, their bodies being literally hacked to pieces.

"One hundred innocents were slaughtered within the Roman Catholic Cathedral, despite the efforts made on their behalf by two French officers."
