

Picture Bride from Greece Is Spurned By American Hubby

CHICAGO— (U.P.) —Mrs. Georgia Moustakos, 19, a picture bride from Greece, obtained an annulment on the grounds that her husband spurned her because she wasn't as pretty as her photographs.

Mrs. Moustakos told Judge Rudolph Desort yesterday that her parents in Greece arranged for her marriage to James Moustakos, 27, of Pawtucket, R. I., by exchanging letters and photographs with Moustakos' parents in this country.

She said they were married April 18, 1949, immediately after she arrived in the United States from Greece but that Moustakos refused to live with her.
